WELCOME TO THE

TORONTO SPIRITIST SOCIETY

Do you know what Spiritism is?

The core principles of Spiritism are found in the moral values extracted from the scientific observations and philosophical aspects resultant from the teachings given by the Superior Spirits and the Gospel of Jesus.

“Spiritism is simultaneously a science of observation and a philosophical doctrine. As a practical science, it consists in the relations that can be established with spirits. As a philosophy, it entails all the moral consequences that results from such relations.

Spiritism is a science that deals with the nature, origin and destiny of spirits, and their relation with the corporeal world”.

ABOUT THE TSS

The Toronto Spiritist Society - TSS is a Canadian non-profit organization that promotes the study, practice and dissemination of the Spiritist Doctrine as codified by the French educator Allan Kardec.

Established in 2010, the TSS sponsors the study of Spiritism in its three foundational aspects: Philosophical, Religious and Scientific. We offer a port of consolation to all those who come seeking peace in the communion of well-meaning thoughts and feelings, while living the teachings of Jesus in light of Spiritism.

Here is an invitation for you to visit us and see our work!

What do we do?

All our work is performed by volunteers that plan, organize and offer several weekly activities involving:

- Moral and spiritual education
- Charity and social works in our community
- Counselling and emotional support
- Fundraising

Most activities are offered at no cost to anyone who comes to our door. We encourage those in need to learn more about Spiritism, its fundamentals and important moral guidance that helps us in our daily lives.

Become Involved

There are many ways for you to become involved with the TSS and its activities:

1. Come and join us in our public meetings
2. Become a member of the TSS

What is Spiritism?

"Spiritism is a science that deals with the nature, origin and destiny of Spirits, as well as their relationship with the corporeal world."

"Spiritism realizes what Jesus said of the promised Comforter, by bringing knowledge of those things which allow Man to know where he came from, where he is going and why he is on Earth; so attracting mankind towards the true principles of God's Law and offering consolation through faith and hope."

— Allan Kardec

Spiritism and its Codification

Spiritism is the set of laws and principles, as revealed by Superior Spirits, contained in the works of Allan Kardec, which constitute the Spiritist Codification:

- The Spirits' Book
- The Mediums' Book
- The Gospel According to Spiritism
- Heaven and Hell; and
- The Genesis

Spiritism is at the same time, a science of observation and a philosophical doctrine. As a practical science, it consists of relationships that can be established with the spirits; as philosophy, it includes all the moral consequences resulting from such relationships.

Spiritism reveals more profound concepts with respect to God, the Universe, the human Being, the Spirits and the Laws which govern life itself. Furthermore, it reveals who we are; where we have come from; where we are going to; what is the objective of our existence; and what are the present and past causes of pain and suffering.

Philosophy of Spiritism

According to the Gospel According to Spiritism, Spiritism is the new science which has come to reveal to mankind by means of irrefutable proof the existence and nature of the spiritual world and its relation with the physical world. Spiritists, or followers of Spiritism, believe that death is not the end of life and man continues to live as a spirit being who can communicate with those living in this world. After death man retains his character and qualities in the spirit world. This knowledge makes man rearrange his values and priorities in life by becoming less materialistic and tending more toward spirituality.

Spiritists abide by the moral teachings of Jesus Christ as contained in the Gospels.

Who can participate?

Spiritism does not impose any restrictions on who can participate in its activities. We are joined by people from different backgrounds, religious beliefs and economical means. We ask only that you join us with an open mind and peace in your heart.

Our Location

The TSS is located in downtown Toronto, at 261 Gerrard St East (backdoor entrance). We are using the lower floor of the building and our private entrance is through Drivers Lane in the back. There is plenty of street parking at Gerrard St, as well as on Berkley and Ontario streets.
